

Seminar “Preservation, Research and Communicvation of Cultural Heritage”
Program
Vilnius, May 9th-10th

9 d. Monday

14.30 – 15.20	Lunch
VU Library, P. Smuglevičius hall
15.20 - 15.45	Review of Vilnius university Library experience in the field of cultural heritage: research, publications, dissemination: project “Lithuania in VU Library”, future plans – J. Krivienė
15.45 - 16.00	Changing Library in Changing University of Latvia: 2015/2016 – I. Gudakovska
16.00 - 16.15	Review of University of Tartu Library experience – L. Lembinen
16.15 - 17.45	Lecture of VU professor of History about importance and value of heritage, context of Baltic region – doc. dr. Marija Drėmaitė
18.00	Open of exhibition „Acta Universitatis Latviensis, 1921-2016“

10 d. Tuesday

Preservation of heritage
VU Library: Rare Book Reading Room
09.00 - 09.45	Report (Lithuania) + discussion VU Library Policy of documents safekeeping and preservation – Tatjana Timčenko (Head of Restoration Department, Vilnius university Library) Chemical evaluation of disinfection with essential oils based on Vilnius University Library experience Greta Keraitė (Restoration Department)
09.45 - 10.30	Report (Latvia) + discussion Identification, research and popularization of the works of the Courland (Kurzeme) Society for Literature and Art (Kurländische Gesellschaft für Literatur und Kunst) from the UL Library’s collection as the result of collaboration between several institutions – Daina Gavare (library expert, Collection Usage and Development Department, the Library of the University of Latvia). Inscriptions and autographs of the major Latvian notables in the historical collection of the Library of the University of Latvia (late 19th and early 20th century) – Vēsma Klūga (library expert, Collection Usage and Development Department, the Library of the University of Latvia)
10.30 - 10.45	Coffee break
10.45 - 11.30	Report (Estonia) + discussion Preserving collections through neutralisation Kristina Virro (Head of Conservation)
11.30 – 12.15	Workshop by Estonia

12.15 – 13.15	Lunch
Research of the heritage VU Library: Rare Book Reading Room
13.15 – 14.00	Report (Latvia) + discussion The history of the citation principles – Gita Rozenberga (head librarian, Collection Usage and Development Department, the Library of the University of Latvia) Informational Support of Study Programmes in the Library of the University of Latvia: Problems and Solutions – Aldona Volkova (Head of User Service Department, the Library of the University of Latvia)
14.00 – 14.45	Report (Estonia) + discussion Fragmenta membranea Estoniae: towards a national database of medieval manuscript fragments Kaspar Kolk
14.45 – 15.00	Coffee break
15.00 - 15.45	Report (Lithuania) + discussion Personal collections in VU Library: terminology and practical issues – Odeta Pakalniene (head of Information Resources Management Department, Vilnius university Library)
15.45 – 16.30	Workshop by Lithuania
17.00	CERN exhibition / historical tour around University and Library

11 d. Wednesday

Communication of the heritage VU Library: Rare Book Reading Room
09.00 – 09.45	Report (Estonia) + discussion Communicating cultural heritage in the University of Tartu Library - Malle Ermel
09.45 – 10.30	Report (Lithuania) + discussion Research project Virtual reconstruction of the oldest academic library in Lithuania – Aušra Rinkūnaitė (Rare Book Department) Best practices in promoting the cultural heritage Nijolė Bulotaitė (Communication and Information Department)
10.30 – 11.15	Report (Latvia) + discussion Cultural heritage and use of technologies for publicity in the Library of the University of Latvia – Ilga Mantiniece (library expert, Collection Usage and Development Department, the Library of the University of Latvia) Library, where books never sleep: Natural Science library assessment of availability – Rita Alkšbirze (head librarian, User Service Department, the Library of the University of Latvia)
11.15 – 12.00	Workshop
	Lunch