Clarivate Analytics invites you to a presentation-workshop on the use of bibliographic and abstract databases, looking for information about scientific achievements and creating bibliometric analyzes.

Bibliometric analysis is a rapidly growing method of evaluating research results and comprehensively capturing scientific achievements at many organizational levels of academic institutions.

PROGRAMME

- Role of bibliometric analysis
- Web of Science Core Collection How to search, refine and analyse results, create citation reports
- What is the h-index, Journal Impact Factor, Category Normalized Citation index etc.
- How to evaluate journals what are the best sources for community
- Incites Benchmark & Analytics tool of comprehensive research out analysis.
- Analysing strengths and weaknesses of Institution, best performing authors, finding opportunities in collaboration, funding sources, and more…

The workshop is to be a combination of demonstrations and practical sessions using the InCites Benchmarks and Analytics platform.

https://clarivate.com